

Mathematics, Grade 7

Unit II: Lesson 2

Report: History of Calculating

Using resources, such as the Internet, math textbooks and Encyclopedias, research the history and development of calculating devices such as the abacus, slide rule, calculator, and computer.

Compare and contrast the various devices in a written report. Your report should include illustrations, diagrams, and a bibliography of resources.

Share your report with the class.