

Mathematics, Grade 7

Unit III: Lesson 1

Model: Currency Calculator

Research values of currency for at least three different countries.

Construct a slide rule or manual computer that could be used to convert money from various countries into another country's currency. Use current rates of exchange.

Demonstrate your device to the class.