

Mathematics, Grade 7

Unit XI: Lesson 2

Computer Program: Reading Rate

A person's reading rate is determined by the number of words read divided by the number of minutes read.

Write a computer program that will determine a person's reading rate.

Ask your classmates to read a variety of selections. Use your computer program to determine the reading rate for each student.