

Social Studies, Grade 6

Unit II: Lesson A9

Time Line: British and French Conflict

Research the conflicts between the British and the French which took place in North America.

Create a time line that shows the battles and wars through history between the British and French.

Summarize by sharing with your class the reasons you think there has been so much conflict between the two nations.