Proposal: Canadian History Museum

Read biographies of Louis-Joseph Papineau and William Lyon Mackenzie and their leadership of the revolts against the British in 1837 and later. Evaluate the short and long-term success of those revolts.

Write a proposal to the board of directors of a new Museum of Canadian History in which you recommend naming the new museum in honor of one of these two men. Support your recommendation with reasons why that person deserves to be honored.

Share your proposal with your teacher.
