Unit IV: Lesson B1

Notebook: Silver Production

Examine the importance of silver in the world market today. Investigate the location of major silver-producing countries. Develop a list of how silver is used today. Research the price of silver bullion over the last year. Investigate silver production in Mexico.

Compile a notebook to demonstrate your findings. Include a world map that shows the leading countries that mine silver, visuals that show the uses of silver, and a graph that compares the silver bullion prices over the last year. Add a written summary of the importance of silver to the economy of Mexico.

Display your notebook for the class.
