

Social Studies, Grade 6

Unit IV: Lesson C4

Display: Independence Days

Mexico recognizes two Independence days: September 16, 1810, when the fight for independence from Spain began, and May 5, 1867, when Mexico was liberated from French control. Research the celebrations involved in these two holidays.

Create a display that contrasts and compares the holidays.

Share your display with the class.