

Social Studies, Grade 6

Unit VI: Lesson A2

Map: Islands of the West Indies

Investigate the geological makeup of the West Indies. There are three main types of islands. Categorize the islands according to language, economics, government and any other easily identifiable characteristics.

Use your knowledge to design a poster-size map that portrays this information. Use color coding to distinguish the types of islands. Be sure to include a key.

Display the finished product.