

Social Studies, Grade 8

Unit II: Lesson B9

Research: The Great Awakening

Between 1720 and 1750, ministers traveled from town to town holding meetings at which they urged people to return to their religious faith. This movement was known as the Great Awakening.

Research the history of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

In a research paper, analyze how the development of the Seventh-day Adventist Church was an extension of the Great Awakening.