

Social Studies, Grade 7

Unit II: Lesson C6

Interview: Non-violent Protestors

Martin Luther King and Mohandas K. Gandhi both used non-violent protest to achieve social change. Read biographies of both men and evaluate to what extent their lives, their methods, their heroes, and their accomplishments were similar.

Write a script and, with other students, record a TV interview of both men in which you present comparisons of their lives and achievements. Show your interview to the class.
