

Social Studies, Grade 7

Unit III: Lesson D4

Display: Native American Dwellings

Research the kinds of houses used by Native Americans of North America and how each type of house was suited to its environment.

Make a display comparing different types of dwellings, showing how each type of dwelling has environment-specific protection from the elements and building materials.

Add short paragraphs to each display explaining and detailing the relationships between the dwellings and their environments.