

Mathematics, Algebra I
Unit II: Lesson A2

Financial Table: Investor

Choose three stocks listed in the New York Stock Exchange in which you could invest an imaginary $1000. Track these stocks as to growth, keeping a daily record.

Analyze your stocks, calculating and recording the percent increase or decrease for three months.

Construct a financial table to compare the activity of your stocks.