

Social Studies, Grade 2

Unit II: Lesson A3

Play: American Revolution

Research the American Revolution.

Select the event from the American Revolution that you think was the most important in helping the American colonists win their independence from England.

Write a script for a play about that event. Include people you learned about in your research as characters in the play. Work with other students in your class and school to put on the play for other students.