

Social Studies, Grade 2
Unit V: Lesson C3

Map: Touring Washington D.C.

Read about Washington D.C. Learn about the different places people like to visit when they travel to that city.

Pretend you and your family are visiting Washington D.C. You will spend four days there. Decide which places you want to visit. Decide what things you would like to see at each place. Plan how long you want to spend at each place.

Write a plan for your family's vacation. List where you will go each day and what things you will see at each place. Include a map of the Washington D.C. area. Make a key showing each of the places you plan to visit.
