

Social Studies, Grade 3

Unit III: Lesson A3

Story: 100 Years in the Future

Imagine you are living in a community 100 years from now.

Write a story describing what your life is like. Tell how you spend your time at home and school. Describe the chores you are required to do. Mention the kinds of goods and services that are part of your life. Explain how world conditions and ecological problems affect your life.

Read your story to your classmates.
