Unit V: Lesson B3

Letter: Patriot Spy

Research the early history of Charlotte, North Carolina. Imagine you were living in Charlotte when it was occupied by Lord Cornwallis and the English soldiers.

Write a detailed letter to a friend in Boston describing what is happening in your city, how it affects you and your family, and what you are doing to help the Patriots.

Read your letter to a group of students. Be prepared to answer any further questions they may ask regarding what happened during this period in Charlotte's history.
