

Social Studies, Grade 7

Unit I: Lesson D5

Panel Discussion: Diamond Boycott

Organize and participate in a panel discussion on a proposed American boycott of diamonds designed to force South Africa to end apartheid.

Working with other students, each member will support an opinion suitable to their character. Suggested characters may include:

- African mine worker
- African political leader
- Mine site owner / manager
- White South African political leader
- American congressman
- New York jeweler
- American industrialist