Unit III: Lesson C5

Report: Revolution Comparison

Create a chart that compares and contrasts the revolutions in the North American Colonies and in one Central or South American colony. Include such aspects as:

- Social class primarily supporting the revolution
- Goals of revolutionaries
- Response from the European nation
- Any help from other nations or peoples
- Type of government created after the revolution
- Stability of new government

Analyze the information and summarize the patterns or cause and effect relationships you observe in a written report.
